

▪ Welcome! Page – Search

List the World Book Web databases available from your school's Welcome! Page.

> Go to World Book Student

▪ What's New

On the Home Page, click on What's New.

1. How many new articles have been added this month? _____
 2. How many revised articles have been added this month? _____
 3. Which new article looks most interesting to you?
-

4. List 3 of the "What's New" topics and give an example.

Topic	Example

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

▪ Featured Video

The video from the World Book media collection will change each time you visit the home screen. Press Play to begin the video. What feature did you see?

▪ Today News Headlines

Which event interests you most?

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

▪ Search

Type World War I in the search box. Search Results are listed on the left side of the screen.

1. Go to Historical Maps > Go to page 2 of the results and find Gallipoli Peninsula.

What is the area where the ANZAC forces landed on April 25, 1915, now called?

2. Go back one page > click on Web sites > The World War I Document Archive > Documents by Year 1915 > Reports on Gallipoli. Read the reports.

Who was the commander of the Australian and New Zealand Division in this campaign?

3. Go Back to Previous Page > click on Tables > Important dates during World War I.

When did a German submarine sink the liner Lusitania? _____

4. Go back one page > click on Timelines > World War 1

Note: You must be logged into your My Research account before building and saving a timeline.

Click Continue. Scroll across the Timeline to find the answer.

When did the Allies launch the Battle of the Somme? _____

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

▪ Advanced Search

1. Click on the Advanced Search link directly under the Search button.

Then go to Boolean Search located on the right hand side of the screen.

Type in the search terms (Box 1) 1945 AND (Box 2) happiest AND stable > Uncheck All, select to search Back in Time articles, then click Go.

What country is the article about? _____

2. Browse. Return to Advanced Search. In the Browse Options section, click the Pictures By Title link. Click the letter F. Then, in the left navigation bar, click F – FA. Go to page 2 of the results and find the link that reads: Farmers pack square watermelons.

Why are the watermelons square? _____

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

▪ Other Ways to Find It

1. List the two ways you can browse Content?

2. List the way you can browse Images & Videos?

- Dictionary - Go to Other Ways to Find it, click on Dictionary > type research.

From what language does the word research come?

Note: Double click any unfamiliar word in the articles from World Book Student to look it up in the Dictionary.

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

- Atlas – Go to Other Ways to Find It box, click on Atlas.

Next to the map of the world, click on Europe. Now, click on France. Some cities have street maps. Click on Paris, then click on the rectangle with Paris in it.

1. Which river flows through the city?
-

2. Find the Eiffel Tower (southwestern section of the map).

Do you think you would have a good view of the river from the top of the Eiffel Tower? _____

3. Why or why not? _____

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

- Research Tools

1. Click on How To Do Research, click on Research Skills for Students > Plan Your Research.

What is the first step in any research project?

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

2. Click on My Research. Create your own My Research account so you can save your research projects. Username: _____ Password: _____

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

3. Click on Timelines. Note: You must be logged into your My Research account before building and saving a timeline. Click Continue.

In the Choose a World Book Timeline box, click on World History. Click on New Zealand.

Go to New Zealand Timeline. Scroll along the timeline to find the answer.

In what year did New Zealand become the first nation to grant women the right to vote? _____

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

- Biography Center

1. What is one of the categories you can select? _____

2. Click on Inventors, find Alexander Graham Bell.

In what year was Alexander Graham Bell's basic telephone patent granted?

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

- Quizzes and Activities

Surf the Ages

1. What are the three different ages?

2. Go to Modern Times > A Look Back (1900's) > click on each category and explore.

In your opinion, what was the top development of the 1900's?

3. Click on Surf the Ages. Select one of the three ages. Write down one interesting fact that you might like to share with your class.

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

- Explore

Click on Explore New Zealand. List two categories that interest you.

1. _____ 2. _____

Name two Newspapers you could access from this site.

1. _____ 2. _____

Return to the World Book Student Home Page

- Most Popular Articles

What are two of the most popular articles at the moment?

1. _____ 2. _____