Lions live together in groups called _______. The females ordinarily do the ___________. They sneak up on their prey and ________ them. After a lion catches a meal, all the members of the pride eat together.

A shaggy ________ makes a male lion look big and frightening.

Thick, ________ fur hides a lion in the grass.

A mighty __________ frightens other animals away.

A lion quietly creeps up to its enemies with soft, padded ________.

Sharp front teeth help a lion ________ and grip its food.