Police Officers help to keep a community _______. They make sure people follow the _______. They arrest people who _______ the law. Police officers also help _______ people from danger. The police officers shown here are helping people who have been in a car accident.

A police officer writes a _______ about an accident.

A squad car’s loud _______ lets people know that police need to get to a scene quickly.

Police officers talk to each other on two-way _______.

Police officers wear uniforms and _______ to identify themselves.

A police officer drives a _______ car.