Trucks come in different ________ and sizes. They rumble down roads, ______ all kinds of heavy loads from place to place. Trucks can deliver ice-cold drinks and fresh bread to a shop or take your _________ to a new home.

There is plenty of space inside the _________ to pile up your belongings.

Packing things in strong ________ keeps them safe.

The front part of the truck is called the _____. This where the driver and a helper sit.

A large ______ makes it easy for the driver to see the road behind him.

Movers walk down a ______ to reach the ground.

A sofa is a _________ load. It is hard work carrying it to the house!

Movers climb up a ______ to get into the cab.