Zebras are quiet animals that gather in _______. They wander around, looking for juicy _______ to eat. Zebras are afraid of fierce _______. When they spot a hungry lion, they __________ off as fast as they can!

One zebra listens for __________ while the others nibble at the grass.

A zebra brushes away buzzing flies with its long _______.

A bony _______ covers each foot and protects it like a shoe.

Thick tufts of hair stick up from a zebra’s neck.

Look closely and you’ll see that the black and white _______ on each zebra are different.

Big, flat _______ are good for chewing tough clumps of grass.

One zebra listens for _______ while the others nibble at the grass.