

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Patterns book.

Animals on the go

During certain parts of the year, some animals move to a place that has better _____ conditions. This movement is called _____, Some animals migrate to _____ areas. The big picture shows _____ that are migrating to areas with more food and water.

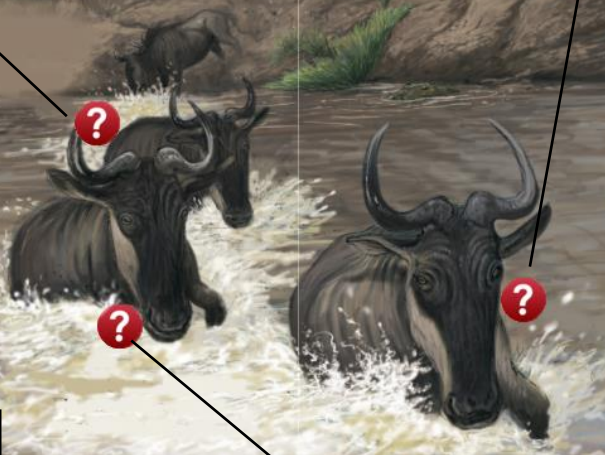

More than 1.5 million _____ migrate each year!

Wildebeests live in the _____ of Africa. They eat grasses of the plains.

Wildebeests travel during the _____. They move to areas with more rain.

Many kinds of _____ migrate during the fall (autumn). They spend the winter in a _____ place.

Wildebeests migrate in _____ to help protect against hunting animals.

Many kinds of _____ migrate to parts of the ocean rich with food. They spend the _____ eating and storing up fat. In the _____, they travel to warm waters to have babies.