

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Places book.

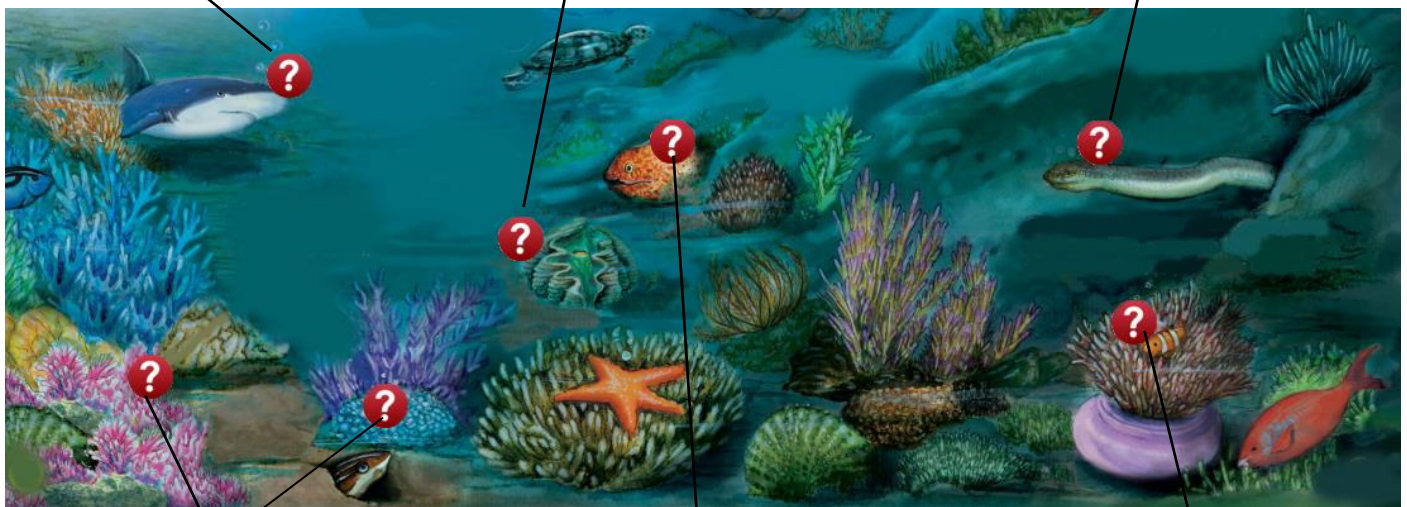

Coral reef

Coral reefs form _____ cities for many kinds of colourful animals. Coral is a rocky structure formed by millions of tiny _____. Most coral grows in _____, shallow areas of the ocean.

A _____ hunts the reef for tasty fish.

_____ are the largest of all clams.

_____ can stay underwater for hours before they need to come up for air.

_____ comes in many shapes, sizes, and colours.

A _____ hunts from a burrow (hole).

_____ hide from attackers in a sea anemone. The anemone has stinging feelers that keep away other animals.

