

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Places book.

Desert

A desert is a region that gets little _____. Most deserts are very hot during the day and cool at night. The big picture shows the _____ Desert in Africa. Animals and plants that live here have developed ways to _____ in the hot, dry desert.

_____ are hills made of sand. They are formed by wind.

The _____ grows only in hot places. Weaver birds build large group nests in the tree.

A _____ can change colour to blend in with its surrounding.

_____ may eat melons to get the water they need.

This _____ lifts its limb high for relief from the hot sand.

_____ plants can live up to 2,000 years.

