

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Babies book.

Fish

A female _____ has finished a long journey upstream. She has returned to the place where she was born to mate and lay _____. The female digs a _____ with her tail to protect her eggs. When the baby salmon _____, they stay in the nest as their bodies change and grow. Then the young salmon travel back down the river to the _____!

_____ salmon are silver. They will not turn red until they return to the river to mate.

Salmon begin life inside an _____.

Young salmon are called _____.

Baby salmon have a _____ attached to their bodies. The yolk sac contains food.

Salmon and all other fish breathe with _____.