

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Babies book.

Lizard

The bearded _____ is a kind of lizard that lives in Australia. It has a spiny _____ of skin around its neck that looks like a beard. The lizard puffs out the pouch when it wants to look _____. When a mother bearded dragon is ready to lay eggs, she _____ a hole for a nest. When the babies _____, they look and act just like their parents, only smaller!

A mother bearded dragon leaves her _____ after she lays them.

Thick, tough _____ protect the lizard from attackers.

The Komodo dragon is the _____ lizard in the world. It weighs more than an adult person!

The babies use a special _____ to break out of their _____.

