

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Places book.

Rain forest

Rain forest are thick forests of _____ trees. Rain forests are found in _____, wet regions. More kinds of plants and _____ live in rain forests than any other place. The big picture shows some plants and animals of the _____ rain forest in South America.

A _____ hangs from a branch as it hunts small animals.

A _____ can grasp a branch with its tail.

A _____ uses its large colourful bill to reach fruits.

Rain forests are home to many different kinds of _____ and _____.

It's a fact!

Scientists believe there are millions of kinds of rain forest plants and animals that have not yet been discovered.

A poison dart _____ has colourful skin. This warns other animals to stay away.

_____ wrap around tree trunks and branches as they grow towards the sun.

_____ plants grow on tree branches. They get the things they need to live from the tree, air, and rain.

