

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Patterns book.

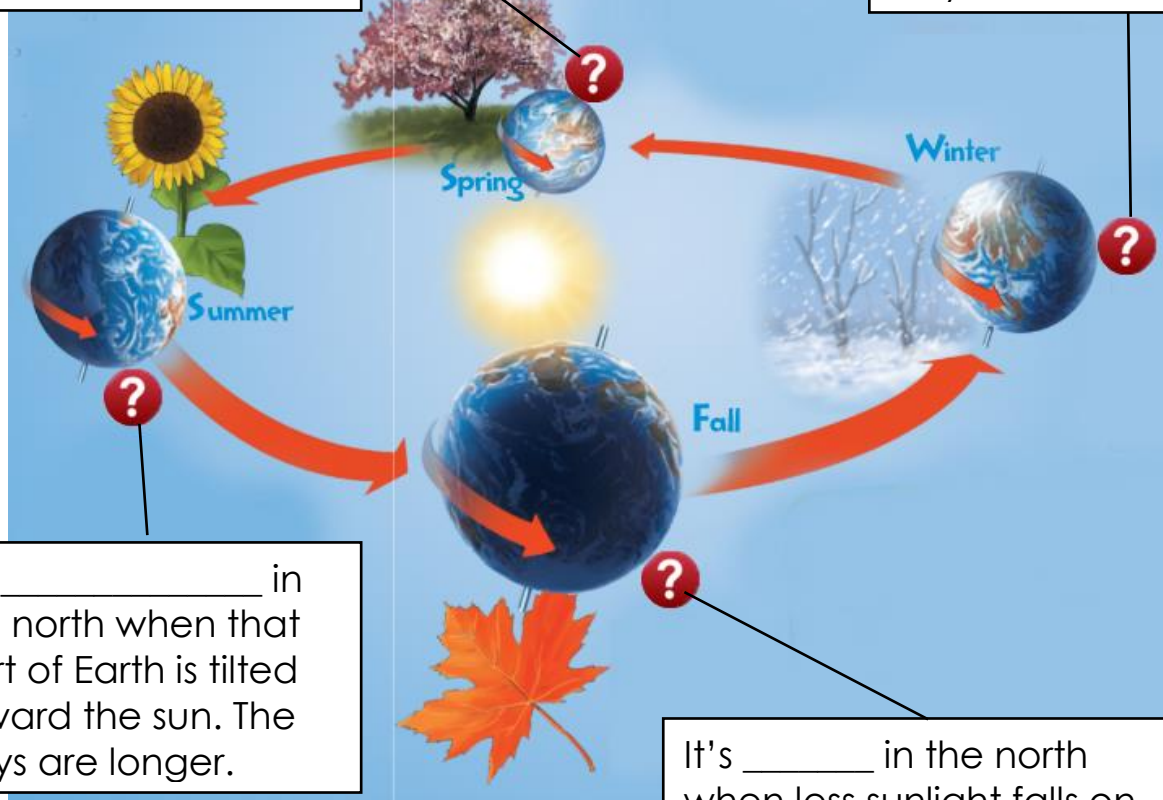

Season to season

Some of nature's patterns happen over a period of _____ or months. _____ are the parts of the year called spring, summer, fall (autumn) or winter. Each season lasts about _____ months. Seasons bring changes in _____, weather, and the length of days. The seasons change as Earth _____ around the sun.

It's _____ in the north where more and more sunlight falls on that part of Earth.

It's _____ in the north when that part of Earth is tilted away from the sun. The days are shorter.

It's _____ in the north when that part of Earth is tilted toward the sun. The days are longer.

It's _____ in the north when less sunlight falls on that part of Earth.