

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Tropical Fish book.

Angelfish

There are many different kinds of _____ swimming in the world's oceans. Angelfish that live in the tropics have _____ body colours and patterns of scales. _____ make up the covering of the body of most fish.

The angelfish flicks its _____ fin from side to side to quickly move through the water.

The brightly coloured _____ on its body help the angelfish to hide among the coral.

Some angelfish can get their _____ by helping larger reef fish stay clean. The angelfish _____ things that have stuck to the bodies of larger fish. As the angelfish eat, they _____ the larger fish.

Angelfish have a thin, _____ body to help them glide through the water.

