

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Terrific Trees book.

Animals live in trees

Trees are _____ for many animals. Monkeys, squirrels, and other _____ live in trees. Mammals are animals that feed their young with milk. _____ nest on tree branches or in holes in trees. Trees may also be home to _____ and snakes. Look at all these animals that live in trees!

A _____ hangs upside down from a tree branch to rest.

A _____ can run, jump, or just sit among tree branches.

A _____ uses its feet to grab fruits and nuts to climb trees.

Many kinds of animals live in trees in a warm _____.

Many kinds of _____ and spiders make their homes in trees. They find their food in trees, too.

The _____ is a slow-moving mammal of South America that lives in trees. Sloths crawl upside down in trees. They even fall asleep hanging upside down!

This little _____ makes its home in a hole in a tree.

A _____ coils its body as it climbs a tree.

