

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Tropical Fish book.

Clownfish

Colourful clownfish live around sea _____ in coral reefs. A sea anemone is a kind of sea animal that looks like a _____. Clownfish are found in the warm waters of the _____ and Indian oceans. The largest clownfish grow from 10 - _____ centimetres long.

Clownfish have a bright orange body with white _____ outlined in black.

It's a fact!
Clownfish can scare away other animals by slamming their teeth together!

Clownfish are partners with _____. The anemone uses its feelers to _____ other animals. But the feelers do not hurt the clownfish. Staying close to the anemone _____ the clownfish from being eaten by other sea animals. In return, the clownfish helps _____ the anemone.

A coating on the clownfish's _____ protects the fish from being stung by a sea anemone.