

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Biggest, Fastest, Smallest, Slowest book.

Dwarf seahorse

slowest fish

The dwarf seahorse is the _____ of all fish. It is so slow that it travels only ____ metres in one hour! The dwarf seahorse lives in sea grass at the bottom of the _____ Ocean. It grabs the sea grass with its _____ and waits for tiny animals to pass by. Then, it sucks them up into its tube-shaped _____.

The seahorse has no teeth. The _____ mouth is used as a straw to suck up food.

The seahorse swims with its _____ upright.

The seahorse holds onto sea grass with its curly _____.

_____ on the head and back help the dwarf seahorse steer and balance.

The _____ is covered in tiny bumps.

