

| Gobble-gobble! T | urkeys are large No | orth American |
|---|--------------------------------|---|
| Farmers ra | ise them for their | A male turkey |
| is called a (| Cock-a-doodle-doo | o! A male chicken is |
| called a | Female turkeys ar | nd chickens are |
| called Chic | kens are raised on | farms all over the |
| world for their me | at and | |
| | | |
| | A tom turkey has a reddish and | Farm turkeys cannot fly. They |
| A long, loose piece of skin called a hangs around the neck. | | get too heavy for their to support them. |
| | | |
| ? | | |
| A beardlike tuft of hangs from the tom's | | The rooster has a red on top of its head. | breast.