

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Tropical Fish book.

Flounder

Flounders live on the _____ and muddy bottoms of _____ and along the shores of most seas. They lay _____ against the sea floor. Other passing sea creatures – and people – do not _____ them!

Coloured bands line the _____.

Its _____ is a flat, diamond shape.

The wide _____ moves up and down. It can dig into the sea floor and toss sand to cover the fish's entire body.

A flounder has both _____ on one side of its body. Both eyes face upwards.

