

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Our Planet's Pieces book.

Our continents

Earth is _____, like a giant ball. It has _____ big pieces of land called _____. They are Africa, Antarctica, Asia, _____, Europe, North America, and South America. Around the continents are _____ huge areas of water. These are called the Arctic Ocean, Atlantic Ocean, Indian Ocean, _____ Ocean, and Southern Ocean.

The _____ Pole is at the top of the world.

It's a fact!
A compass is a tool for finding directions. The face of the compass has letters that stand for directions. N stands for north, S stands for south, E stands for east, and W stands for west. These are called the cardinal points of a compass.

The _____ Pole is at the bottom of the world.

The area north of the equator is called the Northern _____.

The _____ is a line of latitude that goes around the middle Earth. It is halfway between the North Pole and the South Pole.

Lines on a map that run east-west are called lines of _____.

Lines on a map that run north-south are called lines of _____.

The region south of the equator is called the _____ Hemisphere.

The _____ Pole is at the top of the world.

The _____ Pole is at the bottom of the world.

The area north of the equator is called the Northern _____.

The _____ is a line of latitude that goes around the middle Earth. It is halfway between the North Pole and the South Pole.

Lines on a map that run east-west are called lines of _____.

Lines on a map that run north-south are called lines of _____.

The region south of the equator is called the _____ Hemisphere.