

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Biggest, Fastest, Smallest, Slowest book.

Saltwater crocodile biggest reptile

The saltwater crocodile is the _____ reptile in the world. A reptile is an animal with dry, _____ skin that has lungs for breathing. The saltwater crocodile lives in the _____ waters around Australia and some parts of _____. It can grow to be longer than _____ bathtubs placed end-to-end! It can be as heavy as a _____! Many people who live in Australia call these crocodiles _____.

The saltie spends most of its time underwater to keep its big _____ cool.

The _____ are on top of the head so the sneaky saltie can see above the water.

The _____ is bony and scaly.

The _____ are webbed to help it swim.

The _____ are very long and have many sharp _____.