

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Our Planet's Pieces book.

South America

South America has nearly every kind of land and _____. It goes from Central America in the north to the tip of Cape _____ in the south. South America is bordered by the Pacific Ocean on the west and the _____ Ocean on the east. It has tall mountains, dark _____, and rolling plains.

The Andes Mountains go for thousands of kilometres through western South America. Many of these _____ are volcanoes.

Rio de Janeiro is a large, beautiful _____ in Brazil. It is one of the most visited cities in South America.

Cape Horn is an area of land and islands at the southern tip of South America. A _____ is a point of land that extends into the water.

South America has a lot of _____. Farmers grow bananas, coffee beans, and cacao, which is used to make chocolate.

_____ live in South America. People use Llamas for their wool and to carry heavy loads through the mountains.

