

To help you complete this worksheet, use the World of Insects book.

Lift up a stone or a log, and you will probably see tiny _____ scurrying around. There are many different kinds of ants. Most live together in large groups called _____. Ants work hard as a team, building _____, collecting food, and fighting enemies

A leaf-cutter ant carries a piece of leaf back to its underground _____. The leaf will be turned into _____.

This is a _____-cutter ant. It lives on the damp floor of the rain forest.

Hooked _____ help the ant cling to slippery branches as it marches home.

This worker is using its strong _____ to cut a leaf.