

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Homes book.

Holes and Tunnels

Under the ground in the dark, _____, rabbits, and badgers live in long tunnels and snug holes. The big picture shows a mole hard at work, digging and scooping up earth to make its new underground _____.

A mole usually lives _____.

A mound above the ground is called a _____.

A mole's underground tunnel is called a _____.

The mole kicks away earth with its _____.

Strong _____ are perfect for moving earth.

Baby moles sleep in a cosy room called a _____.

