

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Homes book.

Lodges

A family of hard-working beavers help each other to build a home on the _____. They use branches, _____, and thick, brown mud. The big picture shows you what their home looks like above and below the water.

The family home is called a _____.

Baby beavers stay dry in a room above the _____.

A beaver carries a _____ in its mouth.

Sticky brown _____ holds the branches firmly together.

Beavers swim in and out of the lodge through a _____.

