

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Homes book.

Logs and Leaves

All kinds of tiny creatures make their _____ on a mossy log. Here, they can sleep, eat, hunt, and lay their _____. When the log becomes too crowded, the pile of _____ next door makes a safe place to shelter, too!

A beetle crawls over the moss, looking for a crack where it can lay its _____.

A spider spins a _____ to catch a juicy insect.

A beetle's eggs hatch into grubs that chew _____ for their dinner.

This toad is cool and _____ under a mound of fallen leaves.

Millipedes curl up under the _____ where it is damp and dark.

A centipede chases spiders and _____ across a log.

