

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Plants Around the World book.

The orchid is known for its beautiful _____. Many kinds of orchids do not grow in soil. Instead, they grow on other _____. They take the water and other things they need for food from the _____ or from dead plant matter near their roots. The orchid shown here is a _____ orchid.

This moth has a very long "tongue" that can reach inside the _____. It drinks a sugary liquid called nectar.

The _____ are the largest part of most flowers.

These long tubes hold the orchid's _____.

The _____ orchid grows in the rain forests of Madagascar.