Talking about size

1. Can you find a big animal?

_________________________________________________________________

2. Can you find a small animal?

_________________________________________________________________

3. Which animals have long legs?

_________________________________________________________________

4. Which animals have long necks?

_________________________________________________________________

5. Why can the giraffe eat leaves from the tree tops?

_________________________________________________________________

6. Can you see an animal with big teeth?

_________________________________________________________________

7. Can you see an animal with little teeth?

_________________________________________________________________

Comparing sizes

1. Is the balloon as big as the elephant?

_________________________________________________________________

2. Which is the tallest animal?

_________________________________________________________________
3. Which is the fattest animal?

4. Which is the thinnest animal?

5. Can you find an animal that could fit into the balloon basket?

6. Can you find an animal that could not fit into the balloon basket?

ACTIVITY –

Colour the tallest giraffe.

Aim: to understand the language of size.
ACTIVITY –

Colour the smallest animal in each row.

Aim: to understand the language of size.
ACTIVITY –

Colour the biggest animal in each row.

Aim: to understand the language of size.
Trek’s World Travels
Where in the world does Trek learn about size?
Africa