Answer these questions about your book.

Look at the Cover – Click on  to view the cover

1. What is the salient image on the front cover – what do you first look at – the title, the picture, the publisher (World Book) or the series (Bolt). Underline your answer.
2. Why did you choose that – was it because of its size; position on the cover; colours used. Underline your answer.
3. What colour stands out the most on the cover of your book?
4. Did you choose this colour because: there is more of it than any other colour on the cover; it stands out because it is so bright; it is your favourite colour; there is less of it than any other colour on the cover; it stands out because the background is so dark. You can choose more than one answer. Underline your answer.

5. Look at the title – does the use of the spotty background behind the title make the title stand out more or less? Underline your answer.
6. Look at the colours chosen for the title – what are they? What do those colours make you feel – excited, hot, cold, energetic (that lots of things might happen in this book), dull or bored. Underline your answer
7. Robots “are amazingly helpful and amazingly fun.” Amazingly is repeated in this sentence – why do you think they did this? Does it make it seem more important, more amazing, than if they had only written amazingly once? Yes/no. Underline your answer.
8. What do you think the dots (ellipsis) in that sentence are for? How do they affect your reading of the sentence – do you slow down or go faster. Underline your answer. Does the use of the ellipsis make it a bit more mysterious or not (you’re not quite sure what is going to happen)? Yes/no. Underline your answer.
