

WORLD BOOK ONLINE

National Sorry Day Worksheet

Learn more about National Sorry Day – a day that is considered an important step in the process of reconciliation in Australia.

Find It!

1. On what date is National Sorry Day held?

---

2. What does the day reflect?

---

---

3. What report was presented to the Australian Parliament on May 26, 1997?

---

4. What did the report recommend?

---

---

5. On February 13, 2008, Prime Minister Kevin Rudd spoke in Parliament. What did Kevin Rudd do in his speech?

---

---

6. Why is saying sorry considered important?

---

---

Learn More!

- Learn more about the Stolen Generations here:
<https://www.worldbookonline.com/student/article?id=ar750182>
- Learn more about Aboriginal peoples of Australia here:
<https://www.worldbookonline.com/student/article?id=ar751036>
- Learn more about Torres Strait Islanders here:
<https://www.worldbookonline.com/student/article?id=ar755483>
- National Sorry Day is just before National Reconciliation Week. Learn about National Reconciliation Week here:
<https://www.worldbookonline.com/student/article?id=ar756628>

Watch!

<https://www.worldbookonline.com/student/media?id=vd001156>