

Gold rushes in Australia Worksheet – World Book Kids

Read about the Australian gold rushes in World Book Kids and answer the questions below.

Find It!

1. What is a gold rush?
2. In which year was gold discovered at Lewis Ponds Creek near Bathurst?
3. Why was the discovery near Bathurst important?
4. Where was gold discovered in Victoria in 1851? Name one place.
5. Why did many workers leave their jobs to go to the gold fields?
6. By early 1852, where were people travelling from to search for gold?
7. Which Australian state was the leading producer of gold until the 1890s?
8. Name the two Western Australian towns where gold was discovered in 1892 and 1893.
9. Describe two ways the gold rushes changed Australia.
 - a) _____
 - b) _____
10. Why do you think the gold rushes were important to Australia's economy?

Learn More!

- Click to learn about the Eureka Stockade
- Click to learn about Edward Hargraves
- Click to learn about Peter Lalor

Extension activity!

Imagine you are a child living during the gold rushes in Australia. Write two sentences describing what you might see or experience.

Teacher Answer Sheet:

1. A gold rush is when large numbers of people travel to an area where gold has been discovered to search for gold.
2. 1851
3. It became Australia's first commercially profitable gold field.
4. Andersons Creek or near Clunes.
5. They hoped to find gold, become wealthy and improve their lives.
6. From overseas, as well as from other parts of Australia.
7. Victoria.
8. Coolgardie and Kalgoorlie.
9. Describe two ways the gold rushes changed Australia.

Possible answers include:

- Australia's population grew rapidly.
 - New towns developed around gold fields.
 - Businesses prospered.
 - Australia's economy grew.
 - People arrived from many parts of the world.
10. Why do you think the gold rushes were important to Australia's economy?
The gold rushes brought wealth into Australia, created jobs, encouraged businesses to grow and helped towns develop. Gold mining also became an important part of Australia's economy.